

Admission to Full-time PhD Programmes at HKU with Attractive Scholarship!

Due to visa issue arising from COVID-19 or the epidemic itself, some prospective PhD students holding an admission offer from a top University may not be able to commence their studies as planned. The full-time PhD programme at The University of Hong Kong, with a competitive scholarship package, is a good alternative for you.

If you are an outstanding candidate (with a Bachelor's degree of 1st class honours or equivalent) holding a PhD admission offer for 2020-21 from a top University in any continents, you may submit the following documents to us for preliminary screening for the prestigious HKU Presidential PhD Scholarship:

- duly completed form;
- a PhD offer of admission for 2020-21 from a top University;
- CV including transcripts; and
- research proposal (if available).

Please send the above documents to us by email: gradsch@hku.hk with the email subject 'Preliminary screening for PhD admission 2020-21' by June 30, 2020.
